

Cobre del Mayo, S.A. de C.V. Announces Final Results of its Exchange Offer and Consent Solicitation

Mexico City, May 12, 2021 – Cobre del Mayo, S.A. de C.V. (“CDM”) announces today that it has accepted for exchange all of the $120,116,745 aggregate principal amount of its Senior Secured PIK Toggle Notes due 2021 (ISIN: XS1354863612 and XS1354862564; Common Codes: 135486361 and 135486256) (the “Existing Notes”), or approximately 95.92% of the $125,228,986 aggregate principal amount outstanding of its Existing Notes, that have been validly tendered and not validly withdrawn as of 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on May 7, 2021 (such time and date, the “Expiration Date”) (which included all of the $119,533,779 aggregate principal amount of the Existing Notes that have been previously validly tendered and not validly withdrawn on or before 5:00 p.m., New York City time, on April 23, 2021, and previously accepted for exchange), in its previously announced offer (the “Exchange Offer”) to Eligible Holders described below to exchange any and all of its Existing Notes for, at the election of such Eligible Holders, a combination of Senior Secured Notes due 2026 (the “2026 Secured Notes”) and Senior Secured PIK Toggle Notes due 2030 (the “2030 Secured Notes” and, together with the 2026 Secured Notes, the “New Notes”). The deadline for Eligible Holders to validly withdraw their Existing Notes validly tendered and validly revoke their consents to the Proposed Amendments was 11:59 p.m., New York City time, on May 7, 2021 (such time and date, the “Withdrawal Deadline”). Existing Notes that have been validly tendered and not validly withdrawn prior to the Withdrawal Deadline may not be validly withdrawn and consents that have been validly delivered and not validly revoked prior to the Withdrawal Deadline may not be validly revoked, in each case unless otherwise required by applicable law.

In conjunction with the Exchange Offer, CDM obtained consents representing approximately 95.92% of the Existing Notes outstanding, pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions of the consent solicitation (the “Consent Solicitation”) to amend the indenture governing the Existing Notes to eliminate most of the restrictive covenants set forth in such indenture (the “Proposed Amendments”). Promptly following the Withdrawal Deadline, CDM, the guarantors party thereto and the trustee under the indenture governing the Existing Notes will execute a supplemental indenture providing for the Proposed Amendments with respect to the Existing Notes (the “Supplemental Indenture”). The Supplemental Indenture will become effective immediately upon its execution and delivery by the parties thereto, and since CDM has accepted for purchase Existing Notes representing more than the required consent of the Eligible Holders of at least a majority in principal amount of the Existing Notes outstanding, the Proposed Amendments will become operative upon execution of the Supplemental Indenture.

Eligible Holders of Existing Notes that validly tendered and do not validly withdraw their Existing Notes in the Exchange Offer on or prior to the Expiration Date, and which Existing Notes have been accepted by CDM, are eligible to receive $1,043.75 in principal amount of New Notes per $1,000 principal amount of Existing Notes tendered (the “Early Tender Consideration”).

Eligible Holders were able to elect to receive 2026 Secured Notes, 2030 Secured Notes, or a combination thereof as the Early Tender Consideration, as described in the Confidential Exchange Offer Memorandum and Consent Solicitation Statement, dated April 12, 2021 (the “Statement”). On the settlement date of the Exchange Offer, which is expected to occur on May 13, 2021, CDM will issue $18,718,288 in aggregate principal amount of its Senior Secured Notes due 2026 (ISIN: XS2343881343 and XS2343881772; Common Codes: 234388134 and 234388177) and $106,653,522 in aggregate principal amount of its Senior Secured PIK Toggle Notes due 2030 (ISIN: XS2343881855 and XS2343881939; Common Codes: 234388185 and 234388193).

The New Notes will be fully, unconditionally and irrevocably guaranteed by certain direct and indirect wholly owned subsidiaries of our parent company, Frontera Copper Corporation, S.A.P.I. de C.V. (“Frontera”), but will not be guaranteed by Frontera.
